Unlocking allied races feels like a daunting task in Shadowlands. Part of why it feels so hard is because each one requires you to revisit old content that you might not have even played. In this quick overview guide, I want to help you start by listing the unlock requirements, prerequisites, and starting point for each allied race. If you get stuck on a particular race, I have also provided links to my complete guide for each allied race. I tried to cover every detail you need to get started in those guides, especially if you didn't play in Legion or Battle for Azeroth. Okay, without further ado, let's look at each of the 10 allied races and how to unlock them in Shadowlands! Dark Iron Dwarf Faction Alliance Expansion Battle for Azeroth Unlock Requirements Complete the first part of the Alliance war campaign to earn Ready for WarDo the recruitment questline that starts at the Stormwind Embassy Prerequisites You will need to reach level 35 to start the war campaign. After setting up a few footholds, you will need to level to 50 to continue and accept the dark iron dwarf recruitment quest. Where to start Pick up the war campaign quest on the boat in Boralus Harbor (70, 27) after reaching level 35+. It should be marked with an orange exclamation point to make it easier to find. My Full Guide: Unlock Dark Iron Dwarves Fast in Shadowlands Highmountain Tauren Faction Horde Expansion Legion Unlock Requirements Earn the Ain't No Mountain High Enough achievement by finishing the Highmountain storyline.Accept and complete the recruitment questline from the Orgrimmar Embassy Prerequisites You need to be level 10 to start the Highmountain story and level 45 for the recruitment quests. Where to start Accept The Lone Mountain from your Legion class hall. Suppose you haven't unlocked the Legion class hall in Dalaran. In that case, you will need to accept the mission to "Fight the Legion" and visit the Broken Shore from the command board in Stormwind or Orgrimmar. If you are brand new to World of Warcraft, you will need to reach level 50 on one character before playing through the Legion content. My Full Guide: Unlock Highmountain Tauren Fast in Shadowlands Kul Tiran Human Faction Alliance Expansion Battle for Azeroth Unlock Requirements Prerequisites You need to be level 10 to start questing in Kul Tiras and then level 50 for the whole war campaign & recruitment quest chain. Where to start Pick up The Tides of War from the hero's call board in Stormwind. This will take you on a chain to start questing in Tiragarde Sound. You can begin questing in Drustvar at level 25 and Stormsong Valley at 35. If you want a complete walkthrough for each step in the process, make sure to check out the link to my guide below. My Full Guide: Unlock Kul Tiran Humans Fast in Shadowlands Lightforged Draenei Faction Alliance Expansion Legion Unlock Requirements Get the You Are Now Prepared! achievement by finishing the Argus storylineComplete the 3 recruitment quests starting at the Stormwind Embassy Prerequisites Level 45+ Where to start Reach level 45+ and accept the Uniting the Isles quest from Khadgar in Legion Dalaran. You can find him in the large round building called the Violet Citadel. This will take you on a chain to begin the Argus storyline. If you played in Legion, you may have already unlocked Argus and won't need to do the chain again. You can check if you have been to Argus by looking for a Lightforged Beacon at Krasus' Landing in Dalaran (should show on your map). My complete guide also walks through the process of getting to Dalaran if you are lost. My Full Guide: Unlock Lightforged Draenei Fast in Shadowlands Mag'har Orc Faction Horde Expansion Battle for Azeroth Unlock Requirements Earn the Ready for War achievement by finishing the 1st part of the war campaign.Complete a series of recruitment quests starting at the Orgrimmar Embassy. Prerequisites You need to be level 35 to start the war campaign but level 50 to finish it and the Mag'har recruitment quests. Where to start Pick up the first war campaign quest from the boat in the Port of Zandalar (51, 100) after reaching level 35. After setting up 2 footholds, you will need to reach level 40 to move on. Once you have the 3rd foothold established, you need to level to 50 to continue. My Full Guide: Unlock Mag'har Orcs Fast in Shadowlands Mechagnome Faction Alliance Expansion Battle for Azeroth Unlock Requirements Complete the Mechagon storyline to earn The Mechagonian Threat. Do the Mechagnome recruitment quests that you get from the Stormwind Embassy. Prerequisites You need to be level 50 to unlock Mechagon Island and begin the required quests. Where to start Accept Fame Waits for Gnome One from Gila Crosswires in the Stormwind Embassy after level 50. This will allow you to unlock Mechagon Island and its storyline. My Full Guide: Unlock Mechagnomes Fast in Shadowlands Nightborne Faction Horde Expansion Legion Unlock Requirements Earn the Insurrection achievement by finishing the Suramar storylineComplete 4 recruitment quests, which start at the Orgrimmar Embassy Prerequisites You need to be level 45 to begin questing in Suramar. Where to start The Insurrection storyline makes Nightborne one of the most confusing races to unlock. There are many branching questlines, and the Insurrection story doesn't happen until you are knee-deep in Suramar's story. To begin, you will want to reach level 45 and then pick up Khadgar's Discovery from the Violet Citadel in Legion Dalaran. This will take you through the introduction to Suramar. While you are picking up Khadgar's Discovery, you'll also want to pick up Uniting the Isles from Khadgar. This will unlock world quests in Suramar which will be required for one of the Insurrection quest chains. As an extra tip, I would highly recommend that you download the BtwQuests and BtwQuests: Legion addons. These are lifesavers because they add a book minimap icon that you can click to get a dungeon journal-style window for your quests. It is really easy to use as well. For example, you can click on the Insurrection storyline under Suramar and then hover over each chapter to see the prerequisites. If you click through to a specific chapter, you will see a tree of each quest. You can then click on one to add a map pin showing where to pick it up. Pretty neat, eh? My Full Guide: Unlock Nightborne Fast in Shadowlands Void Elf Faction Alliance Expansion Legion Unlock Requirements Complete the Argus zone storyline, which awards the You Are Now Prepared! achievement.Do the recruitment quest chain starting at the Stormwind Embassy. Prerequisites You need to be level 45 to begin questing on Argus. Where to start Reach level 45+ and accept the Uniting the Isles quest from Khadgar in Legion Dalaran. You can find him in the large round building called the Violet Citadel. This will take you on a chain to begin the Argus storyline. After unlocking Argus, you can return by taking the Lightforged Beacon that appears at Krasus' Landing on the east side of Dalaran. My Full Guide: Unlock Void Elves Fast in Shadowlands Vulpera Faction Horde Expansion Battle for Azeroth Unlock Requirements Finish the main Vul'dun zone storyline, which awards the Secrets in the Sands achievement.Complete the recruitment quest chain starting at the Orgrimmar Embassy. Prerequisites You need to be level 35 to begin the Vul'dun storyline. Where to start If your character is level 35+, you can check the scouting map up the west stairs in the main chamber of the Great Seal. This will give you the option to select Vol'dun as your questing zone and unlock a flight path for you. My Full Guide: Unlock Vulpera Fast in Shadowlands Zandalari Troll Faction Horde Expansion Battle for Azeroth Unlock Requirements Prerequisites You need to be level 10 to begin questing in Zandalar and level 50 to complete the war campaign and recruitment quests. Where to start If you've never been to Zandalar, pick up Battle for Azeroth: Mission Statement from Sylvanas in Orgrimmar (Grommash Hold). This will take you on a short quest chain through Stormwind and eventually to Zandalar. If you have been to Zandalar before and don't remember how to get there, you can find a portal in the Orgrimmar portal room. My Full Guide: Unlock Zandalari Troll Fast in Shadowlands Final Thoughts Unlocking allied races can be difficult and time-consuming. However, once you boil it down and use addons like BtwQuests, things get a little easier. In a future article, I am going to go over some of the most frequently asked questions players have about allied races, so stay tuned! Thanks for reading! When World of Warcraft introduced allied races in Legion and Battle for Azeroth, I rushed to unlock them all. While I was excited about all the races, I think Zandalari Trolls were the ones I looked forward to the most. Since unlocking them, the requirements have changed, and many guides aren't clear on what you need to do now. In this article, I want to provide clear directions on how you can unlock Zandalari Trolls in Shadowlands. At a high level, there are 3 requirements to unlock Zandalari Trolls in WoW Shadowlands, which includes: Finishing the main storyline in all 3 Zandalar zones and 2 other story quests (using Horde character).Completing parts 1 and 2 of the Horde War Campaign.Doing the 17 recruitment quests, starting at the Orgrimmar Embassy (level 50+ character). Now that I have given you a little taste of what we will cover... let's dive into the nitty-gritty details! Finishing the main storylines of Zandalar The first requirement to unlock Zandalari trolls is to complete the main storylines on the continent of Zandalar. Doing these storylines will award Zandalar Forever, which is actually made up of 5 minor achievements. Before we go over the individual achievements, let's make sure you know how to get to Zandalar. Getting to Zandalar If you have never been there, you can get to Zandalar by talking to Sylvanas in Orgrimmar (Grommash Hold) to pick up Battle for Azeroth: Mission Statement. This will take you on a short quest chain through Stormwind and eventually to Zandalar. If you have been to Zandalar before and don't remember how to get there, you can find a portal in the Orgrimmar portal room. Earning the Zandalar Forever Achievement Zandalar has three zones with major storylines — Vol'Dun, Nazmir, and Zuldazar. Each zone has multiple "chapters" in its story that you need to complete to earn an achievement. You can check your progress on the chapters by navigating to that zone in your quest log. This will show a box for story progress at the top. Here is an example of my Zuldazar story progress in my quest log. You can do the zone stories in whatever order you want. Once you complete the main storyline in each zone, it will reward an achievement. The main areas and their accompanying achievement are listed below: In addition to these zone storylines, you will also need to complete 2 other quest chains. The first one starts with a quest called The Blood Gate. This can be started with a level 10 character and is picked up in the city of Dazar'alor. Completing this quest chain will award A Bargain of Blood, another achievement needed for Zandalar Forever. The final piece you will need to earn Zandalar Forever is finishing The Final Seal. This quest chain requires that you have completed all other parts of the Zandalar Forever achievement before you can start it. Once you have done the other 4, this one should show up as a golden exclamation point on your map in Dazar'alor. It involves a short combat-driven scenario that doesn't take long to complete. Overall, completing all the Zandalar storylines will take about 4-6 hours for the average player, depending on whether you have flying unlocked. Fortunately, the time you invest into finishing Secrets in the Sands will also help you unlock Vulperia at the same time. Okay, that is one step down... two to go. Completing parts 1 and 2 of the Horde War Campaign The second requirement to unlock Zandalari Trolls is to complete the first two parts of the Horde War Campaign. These quests require your character to be level 35+ and can be started on the ship at the south end of Dazar'alor. You can start the War Campaign in Dazar'alor harbor after level 35. Part 1 of the campaign requires you to establish footholds on the alliance continent of Kul'Tiras and complete a few other quests. In total, there are 8 quest lines included in the first part which include: Once you finish all the storylines on this list, you will be awarded Ready for War and can begin the second part. For the second part, you will be given the Tides of Vengeance achievement; once you do the following 4 questlines: Completing the first two parts of the War Campaign will take the average player 2-3 hours. While there are more parts to the campaign, you only need to go until you get Tides of Vengeance to unlock Zandalari Trolls. On a side note, obtaining Ready for War is the requirement for getting the Mag'har Orc allied race. So, if you do the first two requirements, you should have what you need to start the Vulperia and Mag'har questlines. Even better, you are now ready to begin the questline to officially play as a Zandalari Troll! Do the 17 quest Zandalari Troll recruitment storyline. To start the Zandalari Troll quest chain, you will need to visit the Orgrimmar Embassy. This is located in the southwest corner of the city. You will find the quest giver, Rokhan, inside the hut at the embassy. The quest he gives you is called A Royal Occasion. As an important note, beginning this quest requires you to be level 50+. After accepting the quest, you will use the Zandalar portal to travel back and play through a short series of quests. This chain goes pretty quick and will take the average player 30 minutes to an hour to complete. I have included a few frequently asked questions below. If you are working on unlocking other allied races, here is my quick allied race unlock overview and links to detailed guides for every race. Frequently Asked Questions Q. How long does it take to unlock Zandalari Trolls? Based on the requirements, it takes about 6 – 10 hours to unlock Zandalari Trolls from scratch. If you have already done some Zandalar questing on the War Campaign, it may be faster. For players who do not have flying in BFA zones, it will take longer.
